OUT OF THE UNDERWORLD

IMAGINE the worst sharks that exist in New York's Chinatown—a daring cracksman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a faker who counterfeits any deformity, a dope-fiend as sly as a weasel.

Imagine such crooks in a little village, invading the lives of other human beings as good as these are bad—the acid of sin striving to bite into the gold of pure hearts.

Imagine! . . . . .
Imagine all you've known of good and bad in this world, and even then you can't imagine the wondrous appeal of "The Miracle Man."

Patrons are urged to be in their seats at screening in order to get the full benefit of the unfolding of this great story.

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS SEIZE BOOZE CRAFT

CRIPPLED, IT PUT INTO WEST PALM BEACH.

Portion of Cargo Seized and One Man Arrested—Others Make Escape.

WEST PALM BEACH, Dec. 12—The crank-shaft broken, the seaskiff Kingfisher, ten hours out from the Grand Bahamas, loaded with 100 cases or more of whiskey, was campelled Tuesday morning to call for the aid of a fisherman's boat to tow her in to this port, and the presence on the Kingfisher of 100 or more cases of whiskey was thus disclosed. A part of the illicit cargo was captured, one of the men on the Kingfisher was arrested, the boat will be labelled by the federal government, and owners and members of the Kingfisher's crew are liable to arrest on two or more charges and prosecution in both the state and federal courts. But the larger part of the liquor-runners' stock escaped confiscation and already is in process of distribution.

Fifteen automobile from various points in South Georgia and North Florida awaited the arrival of the Kingfisher and her cargo of liquor. West Palm Beach appears to be the distributing point for large quantities of Bahama liquor, an officer of the federal government declares.

COLD WAVE SHIED OFF WHEN IT HIT A WALL

BANK OF DAMP ATMOSPHERE SAVED US CHILLY BLASTS.

Damp, Disagreeable Weather, However, Follows Weeks of Fine Season.

According to weather bureau advice the predicted cold wave for northern and central Florida has kissed off, after having bumped up against the heavy bank of humidity which brought rain to this section yesterday and today. It is some cooler, but not uncomfortably so. The cold wave will not arrive, but fair and warmer weather is expected to-morrow, with probably a characteristic Florida Sunday.

There is still a very large excess in temperature so far this fall, and for this reason a prolonged cold spell may be expected either during or after Christmas week. This is the prediction of amateur's based on past performances of the weather.

Today is the kind of weather that quail hunters love. Dogs work well, birds do not fly far and shooting is good.

All who did not attend the matinee at The Arcade today to see The Miracle Man are urged to attend the matinee performance tomorrow instead of waiting for the night performance, when there will be a crowd.

The Arcade will be made comfortable for you tonight and tomorrow when the Miracle Man is shown. Don't miss this picture.

Once Powerful Empire.
No country, not even Egypt, made a deeper mark in the history of the ancient world than Mesopotamia. For thousands of years it was the seat of the Assyrian and Babylonian empires. To the bountiful resources of nature its peoples added those of art and science, and the country during the centuries waxed not only in material wealth and military power, but also in culture. The ancient glory of Mesopotamia has passed, but the glamour remains.

Red Lead for Dry Batteries.
A dry battery utilizing red lead, instead of the usual manganese compound, has been patented by H. Czanyl. It is claimed that the red-lead battery lasts longer than the type now in vogue, may be kept inactive for months without any deterioration and may be recharged at least ten times, with each recharge as efficient as any present battery.

The Miracle Man, at the Arcade today and tomorrow, has attracted more people since its release than any other picture for the same length of time, including the Birth of a Nation.
